Antique 19th Century 6 Door Red Lacquered Cabinet from Shanxi China

The elongated open panels are visually striking in this stunning cabinet from China. The original red and wood-toned painted finish is slightly distressed, revealing the age and adding depth and character to the cabinet while the lacquered finish protects it and adds to the rich beauty. The six narrow doors all open to reveal the twelve storage areas inside. Please examine the close up photos to appreciate the beautiful depth of color and finish on this remarkable cabinet. It is strong, level and ready for use.
