Antique 19th Century Danish Carved Walnut Storage Bench

It is the highly decorative hand-carving along with the deep, rich patina of the aged walnut that create such a strong visual appeal in this wonderful bench from the late 1800's. Enlarge the photos to appreciate the incredible scroll work, along with the carved heads at the arms. The bench seat opens in 3 sections, to reveal smaller storage to the right and left and a longer section in the middle. The bench has been professionally restored, so is strong and ready to be used and enjoyed.
