Antique 19th Century Danish Biedermeier Armoire Painted White

Impressive and statuesque, this country Biedermeier pine armoire is painted white with black accents. The turned columns, painted black, add to the substantial "presence" of the armoire along with the gently bowed doors. Panels are seen on both the sides as well as the doors. Notice below the doors are a pair of faux drawers which allows for even more storage inside. Please take a moment to enlarge the photos and examine the details up close.
