Antique German Two Door Armoire With Original Blue Paint Dated 1808

This stunning armoire still maintains its original soft blue painted finish with hand-painted details. The four panels have the added romantic touch of floral bouquets with ribbons that are echoed on the side panels as well. The canted sides and additional carving along the crown indicate that this armoire was "extra special;" the date of 1808 is displayed in the crown indicating it may have been a wedding present. Notice that this armoire was built in 2 sections, to "knock down" making it easier to take up a narrow flight of stairs and assemble in ones home. This wardrobe had been cleaned and waxed; ready to be used and enjoyed. No shelves or hanging rod are included, please inquire regarding additional fee if this is desired.
