Antique Chinese Red Lacquer Sideboard Cabinet

The deep red color of this Chinese four door cabinet is enhanced by its highly polished lacquered finish while the dark maroon sides offer a nice contrast and continue the clean modern look of the piece. Where paint was worn down through the years, darker shades of black and wood are revealed creating a visual texture to the smooth finish as well. The rectangular brass latch and pulls are a nice compliment to the straight lines and traditional form. Behind the four doors the interior is painted black and features a single shelf. Please take moment to enlarge the photos and examine the details up close, especially the striking lacquered finish.
