Pair of Original Painted Antique Swedish Two Drawer Cabinets or Nightstands

This pair of matching two drawer cabinets or chest of drawers is unique. One first notices is the beautiful paint, with the original layer of brick red underneath which was later painted over with yellow. Now the layers of paint create great dimension and character to the pair, and have been finished with lacquer both giving a fresh updated look while also providing a protective finish. Please examine the close up photos to appreciate the depth and layers of color in the painted finish. This pair may be used as an attractive end tables or tall nightstands as well.
