Original Antique Oil on Canvas Interior Painting by Karl Madsen

The depth of this interior scene with its rich, lush furnishings, tapestries and paintings is remarkable. Possibly the artist's parlour or studio, the eye is drawn around the room from the easel to the piano to the oriental carpets. Artist Karl Madsen (1855-1938) was part of the Skagen painters, a fishing community in the very north of Jutland. Please take a moment to enlarge the photos and examine the details up close. There are minor chips in the giltwood and gesso frame.
