Antique Original Painted Swedish Trunk Dated 1839

Traditional Swedish folk art painting is a unique, hand-painted treasure and this wonderful domed top trunk is a perfect example of Swedish country craftsmanship. The paint is all original, and gently distressed over many years of use. Notice the enticing color of a soft, faded blue /green while a traditional red flower motif accents the front panels. The wrought iron handles, straps and corners add to the aged character of the trunk. Open it to discover the surprising touch of vintage magazine pages that are still adhered to the top.
