Antique Original Painted White Sideboard Buffet Kitchen Island

This antique pine sideboard is a great find due to its length; at 81" long, it can be used as a serving buffet, urban farmhouse kitchen island (it is free-standing, painted white on the back) or even as a double sink in a bathroom. Notice how the original white paint has been distressed through years of use, revealing the natural pine wood below. The top is all pine, with a wonderful, warm patina due to the years of use. It also has adjustable shelves inside allowing for ideal storage options. This sideboard is sold in as is, original condition (which is solid/stable) as we discovered it in Europe.
