Antique Slab Top Plank Wood Coffee Table

The slab of wood that creates the coffee table top holds tremendous appeal due to the many years of use that have deepened its character. The wonderful worn patina you see in the top grew richer over time due to the many scratches, dings and stains while it rests on hand-carved legs. While this table originally served as a work table or bench on a farm, its size lends it to also be used as a unique narrow coffee table or side table in a modern home today. The wood has been left raw and natural. This table is part of our "un-restored" collection and is being sold in "as is, used" original condition; how we found it in Europe. You are welcome to contact us directly if you would like to learn more about this or other items, we will be happy to assist you further.
