Antique Large Bow Front Original Painted Corner Cabinet Cupboard, Sweden

Beautiful and stately, this large bow-front corner cupboard is a wonderful example of Swedish folk art and craftsmanship from the early 1800's. The lovely original hand-painted panels of gray with large flourishes are often referred to as rosemaling. Please examine the close up photos to appreciate the fine detail of how exceptional these were executed. The aged pine has deepened to a rich patina, creating an overall sense of warmth in this large corner piece. Both left doors latch securely in place; lock with key functions on the top but not bottom. This corner cabinet has been cleaned and waxed.
