Antique Original Seafoam Blue Painted Chest of Drawers With Vintage Appeal

This fun chest of 3 drawers is loaded with character thanks to the original seafoam blue paint with an aged white painted accent and original old pulls. As you will see in photos, the finish is severely distressed, worn off completely on the top and much of the sides and trim. The paint that remains reveals crackling throughout and contributes to the authentic vintage appeal of the dresser. Minor age related separation of planks/cracks including drawers, sides and as seen on top. This original painted chest of 3 large drawers has been restored, cleaned and waxed; the drawers do function.
