Vintage Pine Farm Table Console Table With Gray Painted Base

It is the wonderful, aged pine of this old farm table top that draws one to it, inviting you to touch it. All the cracks, wear, stain and gouges add to the authentic vintage feel. Please examine photos to understand the distress/wear especially of the top (notice the 3 slats that support it also). The table top is old, and was separated from its original base. The new base with turned legs has been given a gray painted and distressed finish, complimenting the age of the old top. The table is only 23" deep, allowing it to be used as a console table as well. The entire table is strong, stable, waxed and ready for use.
