Antique White Painted Gate Leg Drop Leaf Table from Sweden

Gate leg tables such as this were a traditional element in a Swedish country homes. Compact, this one stores at only 14.75" wide making it perfect to use as a console table behind a sofa, yet opens to be 66.75" when fully extended which allows for versatile dining and seating when needed. This pine table was crafted in the mid 1800's; the white painted finish is newer and shows typical distress around the edges and surface of the paint adding to the vintage appeal of this drop leaf table. This Swedish country table is being sold in as is, used condition how we found it in Europe. Please inquire if you have additional questions about this or other items.
