Antique Oil on Canvas Painting of Deer Skull by Peter Christian Hamberg

This oil on canvas painting creates dramatic impact in a relatively small space. While painted in the late 1800's, something about the mood of this painting places it outside time. It will look as well placed in a highly contemporary sparse setting as in a ranch home. The canvas is simply mounted on a wood frame and depicts a deer skull with antlers attached, resting on what appears to be the corner of an armoire or cabinet. Although unsigned, the painting is attributed to the Danish painter Peter Christian Hamberg. The canvas does show wear with scratches & marred spots visible in the photos. While the canvas will likely benefit from a cleaning, we leave this to the discretion of the buyer.
