Antique Pine Cabinet Cupboard from Sweden

The gentle beauty of this Swedish cupboard is found in the deep patina of the aged pine, dated to 1820-40 (notice the original hinges). Paneling in the cabinet doors, canted sides and crown molding add depth and character. Any minor cracks, scratches or separations in panels are all commensurate with age and do not impact the function while simply adding to the aged beauty which reflects generations of use. The interior shelving includes a traditional spoon rack (the uppermost shelf). This cupboard has been restored and waxed so it is in solid/stable condition and ready to use. Please examine the close up photos to fully appreciate the amazing depth of rich patina in this inviting Swedish cabinet cupboard.
