Vintage Dark Brown Leather Sofa Loveseat

Vintage leather has an appeal all its own, even when worn and weathered as much as this old sofa. The heavily rolled arms and back are accented by straps of leather, several of which are loose and need to be tacked/sewn back down. The aged patina of the brown leather has deepened through generations of use. Visible signs of age related wear include marks, scratches, cracks in leather, loose/ripped seams, possible loose joints, etc. Fabric is loose and torn away from the back and underneath. This vintage sofa is sold in as is condition as we found it in Europe. Seat height 18"
