Mid 19th Century Antique Set of 6 Gray Painted Swedish Dining Chairs

Class and style combine in this lovely set of six matching dining chairs from Sweden. Note the lovely carved leaf and tree motif, along with the graceful turned legs. They are painted a light dove gray accentuating the classic lines and style. The paint has been lightly distressed exposing the natural wood giving the set a wonderful time worn look. The removable padded cushions make re-upholstering them easy; NOTE that the linen fabric seen in photos is merely laid on top of old fabric to show what they may look like with new upholstery. Please take a moment to enlarge the photos and examine the details up close, in particular those that reveal the color of light gray painted finish. This set of chairs has been restored so they are strong, stable and ready for use. Any distress, cracks/nicks or signs of wear are commensurate with age and do not impact the function nor beauty of this set.
