Vintage Green Leather Chesterfield Sofa from Denmark

Vintage leather has an appeal all its own, even when worn and weathered such as this old single seat sofa. The heavily rolled arms and back are in the classic Chesterfield style (tufted with button accents), while the green leather makes it a unique find. Visible signs of age related wear include marks, scratches, missing buttons (9 along the seat), worn seams, possible loose joints, etc. Scuffing along the wood feet. This vintage sofa is sold in as is, used condition as we found it in Europe. While the leather will benefit from conditioning this sofa has loads of character. Seat height 18"
