Antique Pine Secretary Desk, Sweden circa 1890

Pine secretary or "bureau" from Sweden from the latter 1800's with lovely half column details and dovetail joints all resting on bun feet.

Standing 4.5' tall, this secretary serves well for storage with 3 large lower drawers and a slender top drawer for smaller, personal items.

The desk top opens to reveal traditional small drawers and areas for organization and storage.

Open depth with desk top in use: 33.75"

Floor to desk height: 31"

Restored, this secretary is ready to be used and enjoyed. A wax finish brings out the natural warmth in the pine. Key and locks function to upper drawer, interior cubbie and desk top. Skeleton key will be used to open the lower three drawers as locks do not function.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details. Old scratches, dings, minor separation of wood, stains etc. are all typical signs of wear reflective of age and add to the authentic vintage appeal of this Swedish country secretary.
