Long Gray Painted Pine Counter Free Standing Island, Hungary circa 1880

Antique free-standing shop counter with gray painted finish, 8.5' long. The old gray paint is distressed throughout adding to the authentic vintage feel of this sideboard (touches of white underneath). The top is natural pine and has very little residual gray paint, the wood creating a warm contrast to the painted base. The back is paneled which makes this fun cabinet ideal for a free standing kitchen island.

The constant wear from years of use is revealed in the scratches, gouges, cracks, nicks and separations that create the rustic appeal of this old store counter. One missing small drawer is now a storage area. Some white paint is seen inside the open storage area (refer to photos). This painted sideboard has been restored and given a light wax finish; it is strong, stable, and ready to be used and enjoyed. Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition, and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed.
