Brenham? 19th Century Antique Lacquered Chinese Cabinet with Original Red/Orange Paint

The superb quality of this tall Chinese cabinet is largely due to the exceptional finish. In person, one sees the remarkable richness of the original red paint, accented with a burnt orange. The deep lacquered finish brings the entire piece to life, creating a desire to touch it. The overall effect is captivating, capturing a richness and depth rarely found in antiques today. The unique shape (tapered and slightly more narrow at top) and paneling on the cabinet doors creates the great visual impact of this armoire. Please view the close up detail to appreciate the true, original colors. The interior includes shelves, two drawers, and a hidden storage area underneath the bottom shelf.
