19th Century Antique Danish Baroque Carved Armchair w/New Contemporary Upholstery

It is the new, contemporary upholstery of geometric circular patterns against the back and clean linen on the seat that creates a fresh, modern look while maintaining this chair's vintage roots. The arm chair reveals its traditional Danish baroque styling of the early 1900's with the carved oak details (note the arms, feet, and lower carved support) giving it a rich and substantial look.
