Antique 12 Light Scrolled Black Iron Chandelier

This antique French wrought iron chandelier (circa 1920) has six arms that radiate out from the center. Each arm is set with a pair of lights, all with a candle cover and resting on a floral drip pan. With scrolled arms and applied leaf details, the chandelier has been re-wired for US electricity and finished with a black patina with highlights of a cream colored paint, giving the light a rustic yet elegant appearance. Please take a moment to enlarge the photos and examine the details up close.
