Long Folk Art Painted Romanian Storage Bench

Long, worn and wonderful, this original painted bench still has the original hand painted flowers with reds, greens and blues which were the favorite traditional colors used throughout Eastern Europe in the 1800's. While the years of use are revealed in the distress to the pine wood and painted features, is is this very distress that adds to the authentic, vintage appeal of the bench. At 9.5' long, it has two seated sections that open to reveal storage below. The bench is being sold in as is, original used condition. We invite you to contact us with any questions regarding this or other pieces, and hope to assist you further.
