Antique Danish Empire Mahogany Secretary Desk

The wonderful proportions and symmetry are enhanced by the glowing mahogany in this magnificent Empire secretary made by a master craftsman in Copenhagen. The upper and middle section, are filled with numerous drawers with exotic inlays and secret compartments. Of special note is the architectural interior of etched wood doors with robed classical figures that add class and distinction. Below, the lower chest of four full size drawers, rests on carved bracket feet. Please take a moment to enlarge the photos to examine the fine details and craftsmanship of the cabinet.
