Antique Original Blue Painted Cupboard Cabinet

There are actually 2 different layers of original blue paint that are revealed through the years of distress in this delightful country cupboard. Where the paint has been completely worn you see the natural pine below. Unique to this rustic cabinet is that it still maintains the original pressed glass in the upper doors, a traditional element of the era. Please examine and enlarge the photos to understand the aged distress that adds character and dimension to this fun blue cupboard. This piece is being sold in as is, original used condition as we found it in Europe. We invite you to contact us with any questions regarding this or other pieces, and hope to assist you further.
