Antique Original Hand Painted Flax Tool /Scutching Knife With Yellow and Red Trim

Antique original green painted Swedish scutching knife with simplistic red and yellow trim accenting the hand painted flowers. This Swedish hand-carved farm tool was used during the flax harvest season, but the hand-painted details raised it from a tool to a decoration as well, showing off the individual's craftsmanship and personal style. Each one is unique, please examine the photos to appreciate details as well as areas of use, wear and distress expected in an item over 100 years old.
