Antique Set of 12 Swedish Rococo Gray Painted Dining Chairs

This wonderful set of twelve dining chairs exudes a graceful country charm. While likely from a Swedish farm house, these speak to a more upscale home with a touch of elegance due to the extra elements of carved details and the shapely curves of the back and cabriolet legs. The 12 side chairs have been painted a gray accentuating the lovely lines of the Rococo style. The (newer) black leather padded seats are removable which makes recovering/upholstery a simple and easy process. Please take a moment to enlarge the photos and examine the details up close as this set is being sold in as-is/used condition how we found them in Europe.
