Antique Pine Secretary Desk from Sweden

It is the passage of many years that has deepened the patina with such richness in this pine secretary from Sweden. The simple lines of this country piece are complimented by the warmth of the waxed pine finish. Notice the 15 petite interior drawers along with the small central cubie. The 3 large, lower drawers were traditional in this style of bureau. This secretary has been restored, waxed and is ready for use. The top left corner is slightly raised/warped but is not visible when viewed straight on nor does it impact the integrity/strength of the piece.
