Antique Decorative Blue Painted Bookcase Display Cabinet from Denmark

This elegant bookcase has graceful decorative trim over glass doors, showing off any collection stored inside. The attractive exterior blue paint is accented with gold trim, while the interior pink creates a romantic contrast. The two lower drawers function; at some point the current drawer pull replaced a knob, as evidenced by the remaining hole (mostly covered by the pull). This lovely display cabinet has been professionally restored and is ready to use and enjoy. Any crack, scratches or distress are commensurate with age. There is minor age-related separation between the doors.
