Pair, Antique Swedish Blue Painted Chest of Drawers Nightstands

This stunning pair of small chest of drawers is a special find. The abbreviated size, curves and cabriole legs add to their appeal. Their unique size allows them to serve as an ideal pair of nightstands or alongside a sofa as striking end tables. It is the slightly distressed soft blue painted finish (new) that adds charm to the pair as well. Note that while these are sold as a pair, they are not an exact match as one is approximately 1/2" taller than the other. Listed dimensions are for the taller chest which also has slightly heavier legs. Please examine the close up photos to appreciate the exceptional finish and carved details. The pair is restored and a key is included with each to use as a "pull."
