Original Red Painted Antique Long Console Sideboard from China

The elaborate carving on this remarkable long narrow console creates drama, while the top has been left raw adding a warm organic feel. The original red paint has gently faded over generations, creating a soft finish with faint remains of white flowers on the paneled doors. At just under 7' long and only 18" deep, this is an ideal console or sofa table. Please examine close up photos to appreciate the inviting worn finish of the top, detailed carving and soft red painted finish. This console has been restored, is strong, stable and ready to be placed and enjoyed.
