Antique Swedish Chest of Drawers, Painted Blue

This lovely blue painted chest of drawer has the simple yet elegant lines that reveal its Swedish country style. The carving along the side columns were a traditional style motif reflecting the craftsmanship of the era, while the raised panel in the center front adds unique visual appeal. The (newer) professionally applied painted finish in layered blue tones accents the carved details while fitting the age of the pine chest as well. The faux marble finish of the top compliments base. Due to its size, it will serve well as a nightstand or side table. Restored, this chest of drawers is ready to be used and enjoyed.
