Early 20th Century Antique Large Coffee Table Painted Black

At almost 6' wide, this coffee table makes an impressive statement with large turned baroque legs and unique trestle base. While crafted around the turn of the century, it has been given a recent black painted finish for an updated modern look. Please examine the close up photos to appreciate the finish, lightly distressed bringing out the natural oak wood below. This large coffee table is restored, strong, level and ready to use and enjoy daily. Any old nicks, scratches, signs of wear are commensurate with age and do not detract from the function nor strong appeal of this unique table.
