Late 19th Century Antique Narrow Store Counter Sideboard Kitchen Island with Original Blue and Yellow Paint

Antique grocer's counter from Hungary circa 1890, original paint of steel blue and yellow over natural pine. The back is paneled and painted which makes this cabinet an ideal free standing kitchen island while the open shelving allows for easy access to stored items. It is the constant wear of generations of use that reveal the layers of paint, age related separation and cracks, distress and nicks that create the rustic appeal of this counter. This painted sideboard has been restored and given a waxed finish; it is strong, stable, and ready to be used and enjoyed.
