Mid 19th Century Antique Hand Painted Blue Dalarna Cupboard Cabinet Dated 1843 from Sweden

A wonderful example of Swedish country craftsmanship and folk art painting from the Dalarna region, this cupboard is exquisitely painted throughout in traditional earth tones with blue, yellow, cream and soft red accents over almost every surface. Of special note is the large step cut crown molding with a date of 1843 inside a painted crown and the two almost overlooked interior drawers that are "locked" in place when the cabinet doors are closed. This type of cabinet was often given to a couple as a wedding present. Please take a moment to enlarge the photos and examine the details up close. This highly original Swedish cupboard has been professionally restored and waxed so it is strong, stable and ready for use. Any nicks, scratches, cracks, signs of distress /wear are commensurate with age and do not impact the function nor beauty of this original Dalarna cabinet. One key included.
