Pair, Dramatic 12' Tall Antique Bookcase Large White Display Cabinets from Spain

A single display cabinet this large is dramatic, but to find a pair is beyond rare. Fantastic carving crowns the top, which towers at 12' high at the decorative carved corner embellishments. They are so large, we were unable to photo this identical pair side-by-side; please refer to all photos to view each separately. Originally, four of these bookcases served in an impressive library in Barcelona, Spain. We now have two remarkable cabinets remaining available to purchase as a pair. Recently painted white, the finish is slightly distressed to soften the look and reveal natural wood below. The lower cabinet base opens to reveal enclosed storage (no shelf). The central display cabinet has long glass doors and opens to reveal 2 removeable shelves. The upper crown securely rests in place above the cabinet. Any collection will be superbly displayed within this luxurious pair of 12' high bookcases. Each breaks down as follows: Base cabinet with 2 doors, 2 sides, 1 back, 2 glass doors, 2 shelves and upper crown /top. Professionally restored, this pair is ready to be placed, used and enjoyed. Any signs of wear such as small nicks, scratches, minor cracks or aged separation of wood is commensurate with age and does not impact the strength, stability nor beauty of this exceptional pair. No knobs /pulls included on doors.
