Rustic Coffee Table With Iron Bolts, Hungary circa 1890

The appeal of this rustic coffee table comes from the thick wood of the top that originally served as a work table.

Note the gouges, nicks, deep cracks and old dried worm holes that all combine to build the vintage character of this coffee table. Iron bolts were added to the sides at some point in time to protect the age related separation of the planks.

This table has been restored and sanded so it is strong, stable and ready to use and enjoy.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed.
